

The BIG Story

Family Training

Who should attend?

Join us in exploring:

- ▶ God's overarching mission revealed in the Bible and continuing to the present day
- ▶ The strategic nature of families in God's mission
- ▶ How God creates and empowers children to participate in His mission
- ▶ The state of the world and the remaining task for the upcoming generation
- ▶ Practical ways parents can equip and release their children into God's mission

What people are saying about the BIG Story Training:

"The role of children in the accomplishment of God's mission should not be understated. I have realized that children, like adults, can be involved in the task of taking the gospel to the least reached nations of the earth." — Terkuma, Nigeria

"I learned that parents and children can work together in reaching the unreached." — Jean, Malawi

"Learning that children are a critical group for the generation today and for the future gives me motivation to want to train and bring them up with the right perspective of God's purposes." — Kate, Rwanda

The BIG Story

Family Training

Who should attend?

Join us in exploring:

- ▶ God's overarching mission revealed in the Bible and continuing to the present day
- ▶ The strategic nature of families in God's mission
- ▶ How God creates and empowers children to participate in His mission
- ▶ The state of the world and the remaining task for the upcoming generation
- ▶ Practical ways parents can equip and release their children into God's mission

What people are saying about the BIG Story Training:

"The role of children in the accomplishment of God's mission should not be understated. I have realized that children, like adults, can be involved in the task of taking the gospel to the least reached nations of the earth." — Terkuma, Nigeria

"I learned that parents and children can work together in reaching the unreached." — Jean, Malawi

"Learning that children are a critical group for the generation today and for the future gives me motivation to want to train and bring them up with the right perspective of God's purposes." — Kate, Rwanda